

Tundra Vision presents... Thursday Nights in MOUNTAIN VIEW

ALASKA AND THE LAW

Thomas Jefferson once wrote that “An educated citizenry is a vital requisite for our survival as a free people.” In the spirit of Jefferson’s words, Tundra Vision presents Alaska and the Law, a participatory history series that takes place on the fourth Thursday of each month at the Mountain View Branch Library. Each night features a different speaker, and invites history enthusiasts to muse upon how Alaskans used our commonalities as well as our differences to build a system of justice on the Last Frontier.

Location: Mountain View Branch Library, 120 Bragaw Street, Anchorage, AK
FREE ADMISSION AND PARKING

Public Engagement Session with Refreshments: 6:00pm to 6:30pm
Speaker Presentation: 6:30pm to 7:30pm

Featured Speakers

January 26

TERRENCE COLE

Professor of History, University of Alaska Fairbanks

The Judge: Tales, Trails, and Trials, Establishing Alaska’s Early Court System

February 23

ANCHORAGE YOUTH COURT

Justice for Youth by Youth

March 30

WILLIAM IGGIAGRUK HENSLEY

Professor of Business and Public Policy, University of Alaska Anchorage

Sesquicentennial Perspectives: Two Historical Views of the Alaska Purchase

April 27

MARA KIMMEL

Attorney and Co-Founded the Alaska Institute for Justice

Newcomers in Alaska: Understanding Immigration Law and Policy

May 25

JUSTICE DANA FABE

Retired Alaska Supreme Court Justice

A Conversation with Alaska’s First Female Supreme Court Justice

“Bringing Communities Together Through History”

—Tundra Vision

Public History Consultants

For more information visit: <https://www.facebook.com/Tundra-Vision-Public-History-Consultants->