

HISTORIC WINDOW AND DOOR PRESERVATION WORKSHOP

Vanishing Treasures Program, National Park Service

April 20th-22nd, 2015

Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park

AGENDA

April 20- Monday: Meet at Arctic Brotherhood Hall

8:00	Welcome and introductions	Mike Tranel Katherine Wonson
8:15	Training Overview and housekeeping	Katherine Wonson
8:30	Why preserve?	Katherine Wonson
9:00	Window and Door Preservation: considerations, challenges, and significance	Katherine Wonson
9:30	Break
9:45	Tour of KLGW woodshop and shop safety	Dave Gerlach Al Williams
10:15	Window and Door Preservation Overview	Al Williams
10:45	Window and Door Removal (Old City Hall or Frye-Bruhn Cold Storage Building)	Al Williams
12:00	Lunch
1:00	Condition Assessment (instructor-lead and group break-out) and window/door preservation project planning	Al Williams
2:00	Hands-on window work: repair techniques and the lost art of the scraper	Al Williams
4:00	Hands-on window work: making shaper and routing knives	Al Williams
5:00	Wrap-up and break for the day

7:00	OPTIONAL "Bring your Window Woes" Discussion and BYO Dinner	Al Williams Katherine Wonson
8:00	Break for the evening

April 21- Tuesday: Meet at Arctic Brotherhood Hall

8:00	Preservation 101: National Historic Preservation Act and NPS Cultural Resources Policy	Katherine Wonson
8:30	Preservation Treatment Options Demystified (Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties)	Grant Crosby
9:00	Break
9:15	Hands-on window work: making shaper and routing knives	Al Williams
10:15	Hands-on window work: glazing	Al Williams
12:00	Lunch	Al Williams
1:00	Hands-on window work: pane replacement and finishes	Al Williams
5:00	Wrap-up and break for the day

7:00	OPTIONAL The State Historic Preservation Office and You: tax credits, the certified local government program, and grants and funding opportunities	Summer Rickman
8:30	Break for the evening

April 22-Wednesday: Meet at Arctic Brotherhood Hall

8:00	Hands-on door work: repair techniques, tools discussion, fabrication demonstration, finishes, hardware, and installation	Al Williams
11:00	Wrap-up discussion	Katherine Wonson Al Williams
12:00	Training Ends

HISTORIC WINDOW AND DOOR PRESERVATION WORKSHOP

Vanishing Treasures Program, National Park Service

April 22nd-24th, 2015

Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park

AGENDA

April 22- Wednesday: Meet at Arctic Brotherhood Hall

1:00	Welcome and introductions	Mike Tranel Katherine Wonson
1:15	Training Overview and housekeeping	Katherine Wonson
1:30	Why preserve?	Katherine Wonson
2:00	Window and Door Preservation: considerations, challenges, and significance	Katherine Wonson
2:30	Break
2:45	Tour of KLGW woodshop and shop safety	Dave Gerlach Al Williams
3:15	Window and Door Preservation Overview	Al Williams
3:45	Window and Door Removal (Old City Hall or Frye-Bruhn Cold Storage Building)	Al Williams
5:00	Wrap-up and break for the day
7:00	OPTIONAL "Bring your Window Woes" Discussion and BYO Dinner	Al Williams Katherine Wonson
8:00	Break for the evening

April 23- Thursday: Meet at Arctic Brotherhood Hall

8:00	Preservation 101: National Historic Preservation Act and NPS Cultural Resources Policy	Katherine Wonson
8:30	Preservation Treatment Options Demystified (Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Treatment of Historic Properties)	Grant Crosby
9:00	Condition Assessment (instructor-lead and group break-out) and window/door preservation project planning	Al Williams
10:00	Hands-on window work: repair techniques and the lost art of the scraper
12:00	Lunch
1:00	Hands-on window work: making shaper and routing knives	Al Williams
3:00	Hands-on window work: glazing	Al Williams
5:00	Wrap-up and break for the day
7:00	OPTIONAL The State Historic Preservation Office and You: tax credits, the certified local government program, and grants and funding opportunities	Summer Rickman
8:30	Break for the evening

April 24-Friday: Meet at Arctic Brotherhood Hall

8:00	Hands-on window work: pane replacement and finishes	Al Williams
12:00	Lunch
1:00	Hands-on door work: repair techniques, tools discussion, fabrication demonstration, finishes, hardware, and installation	Al Williams
4:00	Wrap-up discussion	Al Williams
5:00	Training Ends	