

Tundra Vision presents...

Thursday Nights in MOUNTAIN VIEW

Join us on the fourth Thursday of each month at the Mountain View Branch Library for an engaging presentation about Alaska's environmental history. Each night features a different speaker, and invites science, nature and cultural history enthusiasts to muse upon Alaska's storied landscape.

Location: Mountain View Branch Library, 120 Bragaw Street, Anchorage, AK 99504

Directions: Glenn Highway to Bragaw St. exit; north on Bragaw crossing over highway, Turn left into the Clark Middle School parking lot, then immediately right into the library parking lot. (907) 343-2818

FREE ADMISSION AND PARKING

Speaker Reception 6:30pm to 7:00pm
Presentation 7:00pm to 8:00pm

February 25

KAREN EVANOFF

Cultural Anthropologist, Lake Clark National Park and Preserve
Science and Nature: A Deeper Understanding through Cultural Perspectives

March 24

ALLISON PAYNE

Geologist and Environmental Consultant
The Great Katmai Eruption of 1912: The Story behind Alaska's Volcanoes

April 28

JEFF RASIC

National Park Service Archeologist, Gates of the Arctic
National Park and Preserve
Fifteen Fantastic Finds in Alaskan Archeology

May 26

LAEL MORGAN

Founder, Editor and Publisher, Epicenter Press
Reclaiming Black History on the ALCAN Highway

Tundra Vision
Public History Consultants

"The idea of nature contains, though often unnoticed, an extraordinary amount of human history."

~Raymond Williams